Harbor High School
Ashtabula, Ohio

FOREWORD

In the comedy-drama of life, people assume many roles, and the student is the role more often portrayed than any other. The role takes on many phases--the intellectual, the artist, the athlete.

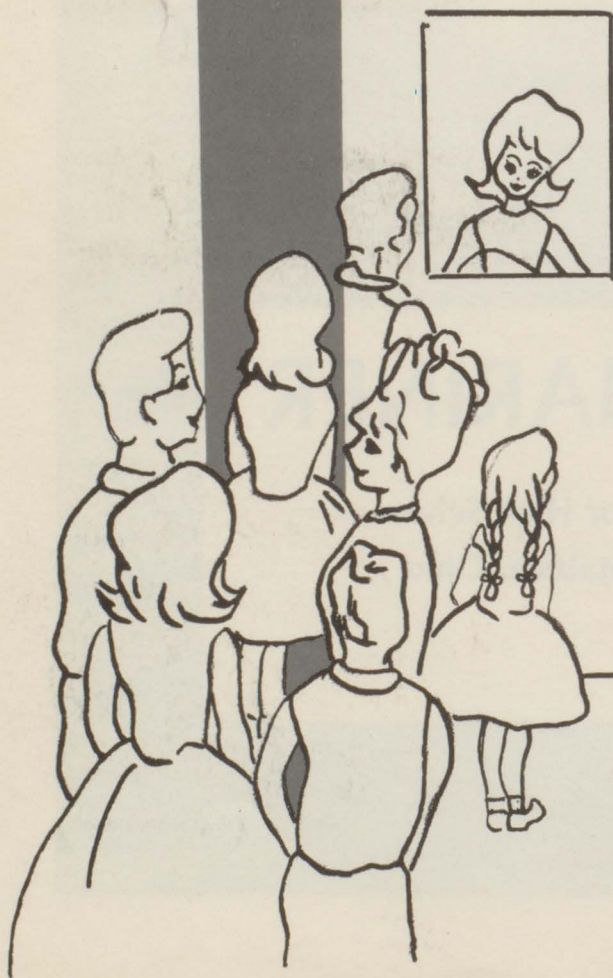

The stage is set, and the curtain is about to go up, presenting the Harbor High Mariner.

This is the playbill for Harbor High School, 1965. Starring are the seniors, with underclassmen in supporting roles. Direction was done by the faculty, with the administration producing.

Spotlighting— MR. HUFF

The class of 1965, Harbor High School, dedicates its yearbook to Robert L. Huff.

Our class adviser for six years, Mr. Huff has worked hard to make our years here happy and worthwhile.

Teaching American History and Government, Sociology, Economics, and World History, he is a versatile member of the Harbor faculty.

Besides his work with our class--our fish dinner, smorgasbord, and prom, among other projects, --Mr. Huff is adviser to the Junior Red Cross Club. Also, he has been in charge of the Youth Government Program ever since its inception at Harbor High.

Mr. Huff is an asset to his community. He is an active member of Lake Ave. Methodist Church. He teaches an adult night course at Ashtabula High.

We dedicate our yearbook to Mr. Huff because he has dedicated so much of his time and himself to us.

We have come to know Mr. Huff not only as a teacher, but also as a friend, and the pleasure has been ours.

MR. ROBERT L. HUFF

CLASS ADVISERS

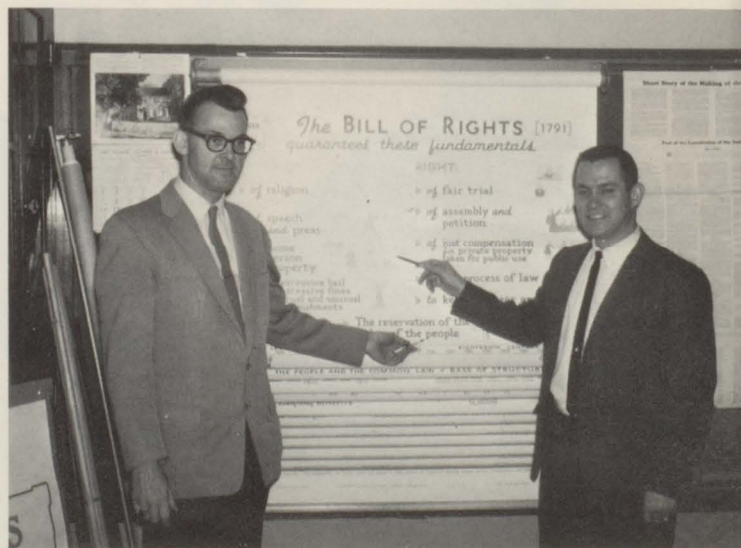

The two head directors for the colossal production called the Class of '65 were Robert Huff and Edward Armstrong. Both have been working on the show with us since we entered the world of higher education in seventh grade. We think they deserve a special round of applause at this time.

We will always remember those projects--fish fries, smorgasbords, Homecoming mums, class plays--that helped us to develop a spirit of cooperation and, surprisingly, made money, too.

And how could we ever forget the prom. Mr. Huff and Mr. Armstrong helped us create what we think has set a precedent for excellence in HHS proms.

For their patience, hard work, and understanding, our many, many thanks go to Mr. Huff and Mr. Armstrong.

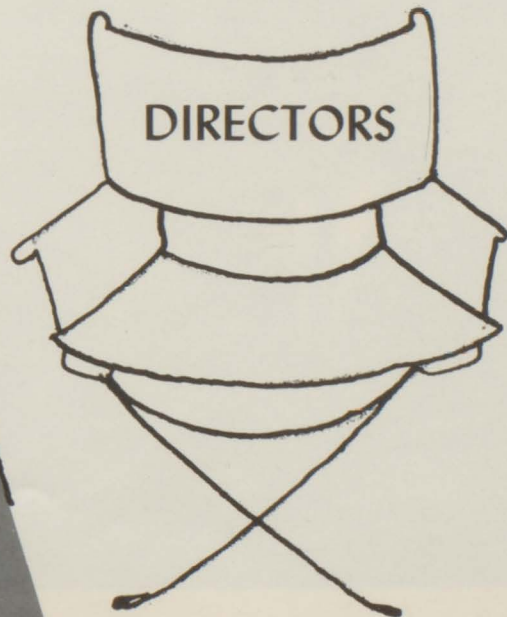

Mr. Edward Armstrong, Mr. Robert Huff.

ADMINISTRATION

Our "theater" is directed by our administration. Just as a play cannot possibly survive without directors to encourage, advise, and enlighten the actors, Harbor High School can certainly not exist without our "directors," the administration.

In a play the director cannot act a player's part for him, but he can and does show him how to do it. At Harbor High School the teachers cannot learn for the students, but they can and do, open our minds to learning.

Mr. J. B. E. Baker, Principal

In an account of a successful ascent of Mt. Everest, the author told how camps were set at various heights--10,000 feet and each additional 4,000 feet. "We never would have reached the summit," he said, "if we had thought of it as a single climb, but we were able to reach our goal by going from camp to camp."

I congratulate you for having reached one of your goals. Most of you have taken the highway this year from camp to camp, from minor goal to minor goal. This climb of life has been, though sometimes difficult, infinitely worth the effort.

Each goal you reach on the highway through school makes the next goal closer and your determination greater; each failure works the opposite way. So, underclassmen, as you witness the seniors, who have succeeded, make your resolution stronger to go from minor goal to minor goal until you have reached your major aim.

J. B. E. Baker

Mr. Murray M. Blake, Ass't Principal

When Thomas A. Edison explored the possibilities of the strange energy-source called electricity, he had a vision that few men of his time understood. Today the vision of men concerning the exploration of the unknown and the expansion of the known is not hampered by the lack of understanding. We know man has only scratched the surface.

Graduates of 1965, your school years establish the kind of adult you will be and largely determine your degree of success in life. You have been led through the gates of knowledge, making possible your future career and training you for the strenuous pace of a fast-moving, complex society. You have not completed your education but just opened the door, knowing that education is the seed of all work.

Murray M. Blake

Years ago, a very common class motto was "Hitch Your Wagon to a Star." This motto may be an actual fact of life during your lifetime. Your school hopes that it has provided you with the basic building tools of learning--tools which you will further develop and use for the benefit of all mankind.

Best wishes are extended to each and every one of the graduates. As you have been a credit to your home and school in the past, may your life be lived in such a way that you will continue to be a credit to the institutions which have brought you to the threshold of adult citizenship.

We open our show with the Senior Class of 1965, our principal actors. Just as the leading role actors are the essential part of any show; so are the seniors very important to our yearbook. These seniors have achieved their status through many years of hard work and deserve the first spot in our yearbook.

SENIORS

NOSTALGIA '65

The class of 1965 has done much to immortalize itself in this final year with such exploits as the famous Chiquita banana campaign, during which it was impossible not to find a Chiquita banana book cover on English or chemistry books. There were such things as footprints on ceilings and phantom seniors who never failed to liven up a history movie. Senior lockers always held surprises for those who defied the signs that read "private." There were days when seniors stumbled in late for fifth period because the luncheon group at Mrs. Stanbery's "delicatessen" ran overtime. Remember when John Palo dressed up as Santa Claus and he and a group of carolers singing "Jingle Bells" visited each classroom and threw candy canes in the spirit of Christmas?

Always ready to broaden their cultural horizons, one group of ladies sat in the restroom reading "Peter Rabbit." Unfortunately, the book fell out of the window and they raced madly outside to recover it before anyone could learn that it was in reality a Helen Gurley Brown best seller.

Mark Plagakis came closest to martyrdom during his adventures in chemistry lab, and Dave DeLuca wins the look-alike award for his realistic impersonation of Mr. Clean.

Our famous Phi Tau Singers appeared on Cleveland's "Big Five Show." Our "It's Academic" group not only made a good showing, but returned with some interesting mementoes of the trip, among them a citation for restroom cleanliness.

Everyone knows who the seven Goldwater Girls were in the election.

Remember how close to physical violence our senior debaters came?

Our Margrit amused her speech class by proposing to move the pyramids to Ashtabula. She later withdrew her motion when Joe Moroski asked how she would feel if the Alps were moved to the Gobi Desert.

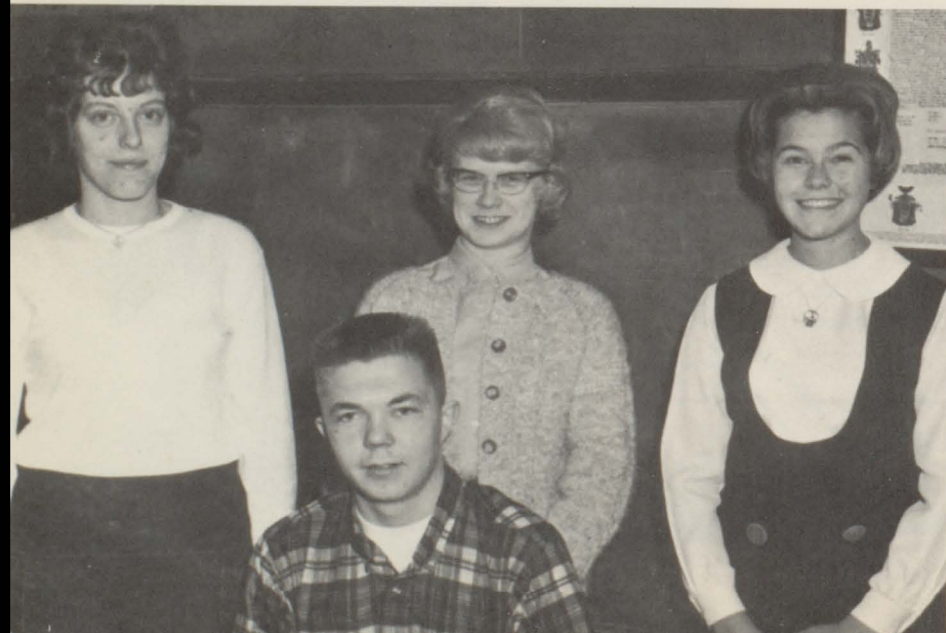

As we have left our indelible mark on teachers, so have they influenced us.

Miss Boyce never failed to boost morale by saying, "If you feel persecuted, I'll oblige." Mrs. Bartish did her best in beautifying the school with "Ladies, get those clips out of your hair!" Mr. Blake kept us on our toes: "Your attention, please! Your attention, please!"

Mr. Wasulko always gave us bonus math problems on our tests, like "How much dirt is there in a hole three feet deep and three feet wide?"

Mr. Moe's college-bowl type review at the end of American History in our junior year provided stimulating education. He called his game the buzzer-wuzzer-ding-a-ling.

The curtain closes now and makes our senior year but a pleasant memory to turn to in the future years and never to be forgotten.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS: Carol Olin, vice-president; Tom Jokiniemi, president; Karen Leonard, treasurer; Mary Ellen Anderson, secretary.

IN MEMORIAM—

JOHN G. HYSLOP

In Memoriam

John G. Hyslop, our classmate who never received his diploma with us, passed away on July 27, 1964, the summer before he would have joined us again as a senior.

John, the son of Mr. and Mrs. David J. Hyslop, was quiet and shy, but also warm and friendly. His perennial smile has been missed in the halls of Harbor High School.

To us, he was "Gil," and we won't soon forget the many "fish stories" he would tell after one of his camping trips. He loved the outdoors, and often went hunting. Gil enjoyed football and spent much time scrimmaging with his friends. Although he is now parted from us, we shall not forget our classmate, John Hyslop.

UNDERCLASSMEN

The understudies of our theater are the underclassmen. They are working hard, learning as much as possible, striving for that glorious day when they will enter the realm of stardom. We hope they will not be disappointed when they learn that being an actor is not an easy task.

Officers of the Junior Class are Laura De-Helian, treasurer; Jennifer Peterson, president; and Penny Robinson, secretary. Not shown--JoAnn Macaulay, vice-president.

Tomorrow, a Star on the Door

The juniors worked hard and long this year earning money for their prom. A junior could rarely be seen without a box of candy or a handful of tickets. Early in the year they sold chocolate-almond candy bars and the traditional Homecoming mums.

More money was netted by their successful Junior Class play, "Pillow Talk."

This year's prom committee was chosen in a new way. The committee was picked from a list signed by all interested juniors. Those chosen were Laura DeHelian, Penny Robinson, David Fish, Nikki Evkovich, Mary Ann McDaniel, Barbara Burns, Greg Schillo, Jane Nelson, Sue Erickson, Doug Payne, Brian Salmen, JoAnn Macaulay, Steve Barrickman, Cathy Kunkle, Mike Andersen, Suzanne Smalley, Jennifer Peterson, Dennis Jarvi, Lois Kennan, and Arlene Mero.

The Junior Class Prom Committee

Working, Learning Not to Be Disappointed

The Harbor High Sophomore Class was responsible for the Mariner patch stickers this year. The circular Harbor emblems sold for 25 cents, the proceeds supplementing the class of '67's treasury.

Tentatively scheduled was a bottle-drive. For this project class members would canvass their neighborhoods for empty pop bottles in order to obtain the desposits.

Serving as class officers are Jeff Candela, president; Bob Beckman, vice-president; Peggy Merritt, secretary; and Lindy Anderson, treasurer.

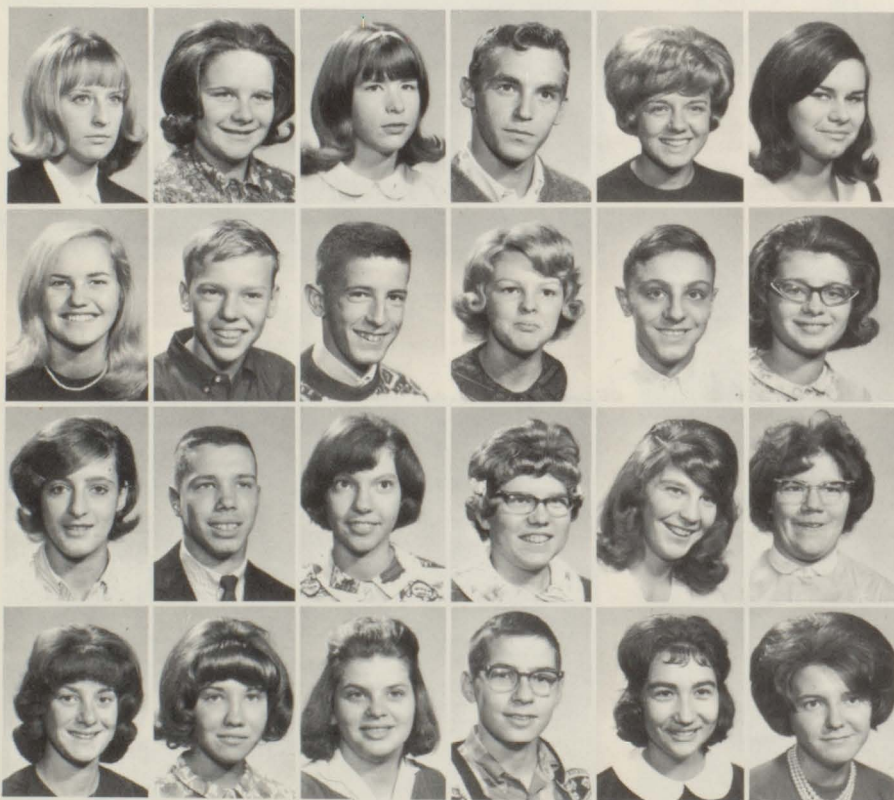

Daniel Freeman and Richard Warner are the class advisers.

Understudies of Our Theater

At the beginning of this year the freshmen were faced with the problem of adjusting to high school life.

Their first experience in the activities of their new school was their own campaigns and election for class officers. After a week of covering the halls with signs of all shapes and sizes, they chose Robert Talbott as president; Charles Notarianni, vice-president; Pat Carlson, secretary; and Janice Bond, treasurer.

A committee was appointed by the new officers for the purpose of studying money-making projects.

STARS THAT STEAL THE SHOW

A lighted marquis, roses on the dressing table, a star on the door . . . These are the symbols of success in the theatre. Personality, scholastic achievement, and excellence in athletics are some of the qualities to be found in the "stars" of Harbor High School. And now, on the stage--those who stole the show.

TOP SCHOLARS

ROW 1--Nancy Snyder (pinning emblem), Robert Stanbery, Nancy Stapleton, Patricia Talbott, John Vas. ROW 2--William Shaul, Gerald Salmen, Hans Mikkelsen, Kenneth Pulkkinen.

The Honor Society's main project this year was its tutorial program, designed to help those students in danger of failing and those behind in their work because of absence. Help was given in Latin, French, chemistry, and math.

The society also planned to issue awards for academic achievement in all grades at the end of the year.

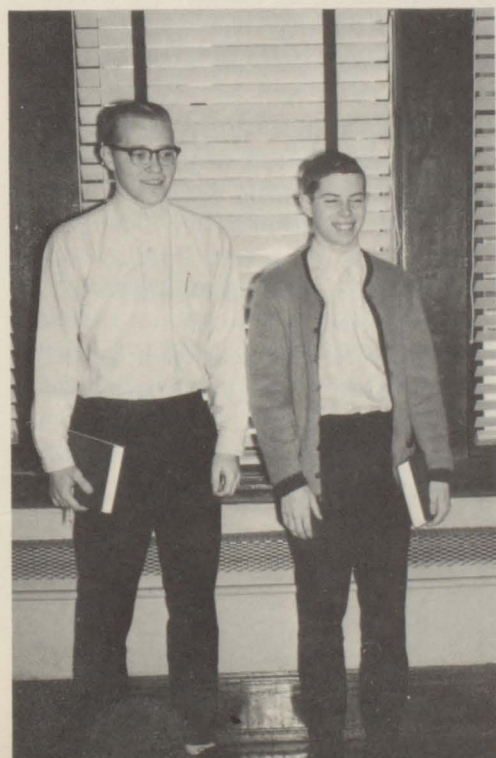

A new precedent was set this year by the society: they held a December induction in addition to the May one.

Officers are John Callihan, president; Hans Mikkelsen, vice-president; Nancy Snyder, secretary; and Suzanne Scott, treasurer. Miss Eleanor Tilton is the club adviser.

MARGRIT BERTSCHI

Margrit says hello to another member of the family, Michel.

Betsy, Dr. and Mrs.

Margrit views our yearbook.

Margrit Judith Bertschi was Harbor's foreign exchange student for the 1964-65 school year. This petite Swiss miss lives with her grandmother in Safenwil, Switzerland. She has a twenty-one-year old brother named Hans Peter and a pet dog named Jutta.

Margrit's American parents are Dr. and Mrs. Carl Pearson. Their daughter Betsy, a junior, has been Margrit's sister during her year of study in Ashtabula. The Pearsons have two sons, John and Peter, who are away at college. They also have a French poodle named Michel.

When Margrit was asked her opinion of America, she stated simply, "Americans are very nice and so much fun." On Ashtabula, she laughed and said, "It is so hard to say anything. I like it very much."

OUR SWISS MISS

Pearson, Margrit

Dr. Pearson plays for a small, but enthusiastic audience.

She added pensively, "That sounds like a generalization. I don't like generalizations because they sound stupid, but to say 'I love it' is the simple truth."

Recalling Margrit's early days in America, Betsy said, "We had some amusing language problems at first. I remember that Margrit had never seen marshmallows, jello, or walk-in closets before." She also stated that she especially enjoys having a sister because she had never had one before.

Mr. Lowell Lamb is adviser of the HHS chapter of the American Field Service, which sponsored Margrit's stay here. Karen Ogurchak, senior, and Douglas Payne, junior, are this year's student representatives for AFS.

Learning is a universal thing.

Pamela Nelson and Robert Schwartzman (above)--Students of the Month for November.

Terry Mohr and Beverly short (right)--Students of the Month for January.

STUDENTS OF MONTH

This year, beginning in November, Student Council chose two students every month who the Council felt especially exemplified qualities desirable in a good student. Qualifications on which the Council based its choices for the Students of the Month were the following: school spirit, appearance, scholastic average, attitude toward faculty, citizenship, accomplishments for Harbor High School, pleasant personality, and activities outside school.

Douglas Kalil and Laureen Colicchio (left)--Students of the Month for February.

Robert Bernado and Connie Coutts (below)--Students of the Month for December.

QUILL AND SCROLL

Outstanding senior members of the newspaper and yearbook staffs, who rank in the upper third of their class are eligible for membership in the Harbor Chapter of Quill and Scroll, the international society for high school journalists. The spring initiation was a special candle-light ceremony.

"It's Academic"

This year Harbor twice competed on the WEWS television program "It's Academic." Team members were (see picture below) Patricia Talbott, Eugene Perchak, and Beverly Short. Alternates were Pam Spacek, Gerald Salmen, and Robert Neal.

MIDNIGHT IN

The Fantasy production of our theater was a "Midnight in Manhattan." As Alice entered her wonderland through a looking glass, starry-eyed prom-goers entered a sparkling storybook dance through an enchanted elevator.

Our hard labor of the previous week had transformed Fawcett Gym into a New York wonderland that was so realistic that the entrance of Broadway celebrities would not have surprised us at all.

The sophomore pages and hat-check girls greeted us at the door. The chandeliers sparkled blue and red, reflecting the colors of the lighted walls.

The Manhattan skyline at midnight, the fountain, and the music gave all in attendance that special feeling of accomplishment.

The King and Queen of the prom, the highlight to the magical evening, were Terry Anthony and Sally Sulin.

MANHATTAN

ROSEDALE

THURBER CARNIVAL

The first glimpse of men and women gayly riding red, blue, and green rabbits swept the audience into the mad, merry mood of "A Thurber Carnival." Wild scenes such as the one in which Grant surrendered to Lee and another in which a billionaire banker was saved from ductal obstreosis sustained the zany atmosphere through the final Word Dance.

Yes, our wild, wild junior class play was in the established tradition for '65. During the weeks of rehearsals, the cast was captured by the spell of madness woven by James Thurber. There were sword fights in the stair wells, and one group from the Macbeth Mystery Murder sketch left a pumpkin on Mr. Moe's desk. And there were many more gaieties that made our junior play unforgettable, ending with a regular orgy of a cast party.

MANY MOODS OF MARCH

The Variety Show, probably more than any other event of the school year, is truly representative of the student body. Many hours are spent rehearsing and perfecting the various acts in the weeks preceding the show. This year, under the direction of Miss Betty Jean O'Dell and Mrs. Helia Lehtinen, the students of Harbor High School did an excellent job presenting the Many Moods of March.

Our Homecoming Court--

Wolfe, Gloria Little, Cathy
Williams, Margrit Bertschi,
Jeanne Jokilehto, Mary
Ellen Anderson, Jayne Martino, queen; and Joyce Grippi.

After a week's long campaign our homecoming queen had been selected. The entire student body had voted for their favorite from a court of nine girls chosen by the senior class. All the votes had been cast and we were anxiously awaiting the game and the coronation.

The day of the homecoming game began on a rather dim note. It rained most of the afternoon, and we began to fear that the ceremonies would be ruined by the wet weather. However, as the sun began to set, the rain stopped and the weather cleared. At the start of halftime, our spirits were high; we were on our way to winning our first football game. As the teams left, the band came on and marched a crown formation.

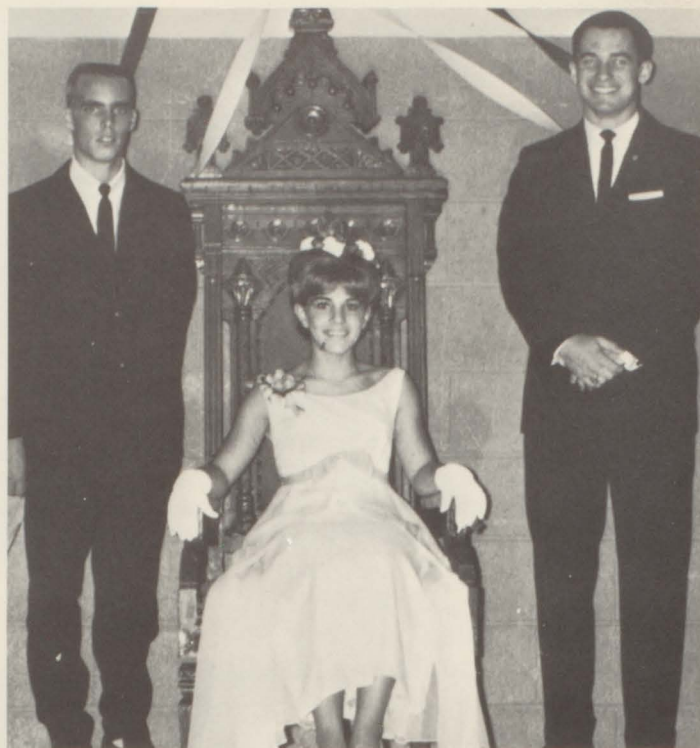

The nine queen candidates were driven around the field in convertibles by their escorts.

The cars stopped in front of the home stands, and the candidates were escorted from the cars by their fathers. As the crowd held their breath in expectation, Mark Plagakis crowned Jayne Martino the Homecoming Queen for 1964.

HOMECOMING 1964

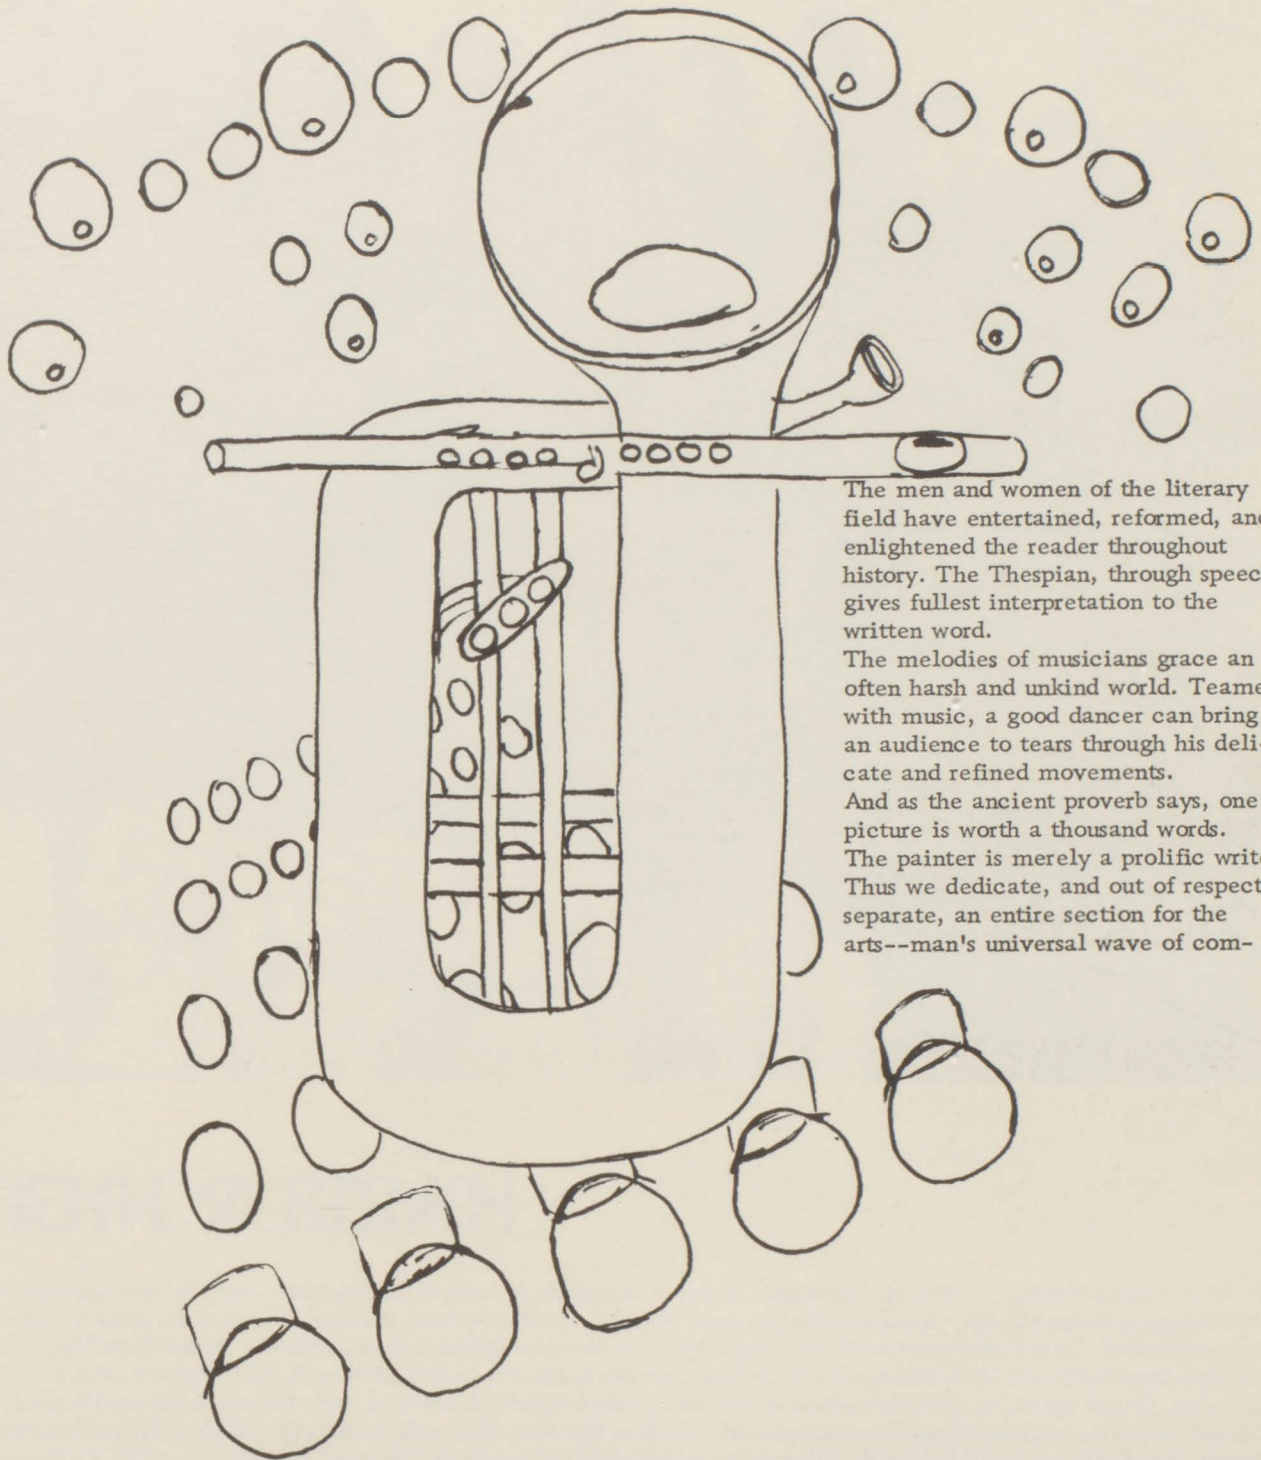

On the following evening we held our Homecoming Dance, the most successful in recent years, at which we danced to the music of the George Simon Combo. The dance was sponsored by the Senior Girls Club, whose members served punch and cookies during intermission.

The highlight of the evening was the coronation march by the court. The crowd separated and the candidates with their escorts marched slowly down a center aisle. The queen was crowned on her throne by Student Council President, William Shaul.

THE ARTS

The men and women of the literary field have entertained, reformed, and enlightened the reader throughout history. The Thespian, through speech, gives fullest interpretation to the written word.

The melodies of musicians grace an often harsh and unkind world. Teamed with music, a good dancer can bring an audience to tears through his delicate and refined movements.

And as the ancient proverb says, one picture is worth a thousand words.

The painter is merely a prolific writer. Thus we dedicate, and out of respect separate, an entire section for the arts--man's universal wave of com-

Editor's Message

The yearbook is a product of hard work and effort on the part of many people.

Among those to whom our sincere thanks particularly goes are Miss Mary Boyce, adviser; Pete Prentner, American Yearbook representative; Art Taylor, photographer; and all section editors.

Likewise, a "thank you" goes to all our patrons and advertisers who helped us meet our goals, and to our understanding administration and; faculty who tolerated us during the many times when we had to interrupt the schedule.

We hope that in the years to come, each of you seniors, no matter where you may be, will take a moment now and then to indulge in a bit of reminiscing. If this yearbook helps you to remember the wonderful years you spent at HHS, it will have served its purpose.

We have striven to make this book an accurate record of our senior year; we hope we have succeeded.

The 1964-5 MARINER staff was beset by many problems. However, through diligent effort, this small group of hard-working students managed to put out a well-rounded newspaper which was sent weekly to all journalism students and to all homerooms.

ORGANIZATIONS

"... and in a lifetime a man plays many different parts." At every age, each of us is a different person with new interests and activities. To further our knowledge and enjoyment of our favorite subjects we join with others, who have the same interests, in specialized clubs and organizations. We now present the organization that characterized the interests of the 1965 student body of Harbor High School.

Forty-four girls have joined the new Future Homemakers of America Association. The club motto is "Toward New Horizons." Their purpose is to promote a growing appreciation of the joys and satisfaction of homemaking. Faye Capuano is president; Sara Loveland, vice-president; Sandy Riippa, secretary; Pat Ferry, treasurer; Louise Rexroad, reporter; Betty Kackathorn, historian; and Rosalie Napolitan, parliamentarian. The adviser is Miss Clara Chandler.

FHA

The Student Council consists of the elected officers, class officers, and the homeroom presidents and is the main body of student government in the school. The Student Council elects two Students of the Month, based on school spirit, attitude, scholarship, personality, appearance, character, and activities. The Council attempts to promote school spirit and respect among the student body. The officers include Bill Shaul, president; Mark Plagakis, vice-president; Betsy Pearson, secretary; and Suzanne Smalley, treasurer. Murray Blake is the adviser.

Interest on the part of several students, plus the willingness of Tom Moe to coach, accounted for the coming into being of Harbor's tennis team in 1964. Although tennis wasn't a varsity sport and there was no league competition, Harbor netters made an excellent showing by winning all four of their matches. They downed St. John twice and Astabula twice by the score of 5-0 in every match. Harbor lost only one set in the 41 that were played while on their way to a highly successful season.

FRESHMAN 1964 FOOTBALL

The Freshman Mariners of 1964, although hit hard by injuries to key players, concluded the season with a fine 4-1-2 record. Harbor defeated Jefferson, Geneva, Pymatuning Valley, and St. John. They lost a close one to Ashtabula and tied Conneaut and powerful Edgewood.

FRESHMAN 1964 TRACK

Harbor's 1964 Freshman track team, also coached by Mr. Warner, made a good showing in their short season. After soundly trouncing Geneva and Conneaut, the Midget Mariners were nipped by Ashtabula, losing by only 3 points. In the Freshman District Meet, they finished a fine third out of 8 teams.

BASKETBALL

COACH ED ARMSTRONG

In a year of rebuilding, the 1964-65 Harbor Varsity Basketball team provided its followers with many closely contested games. Unfortunately, however, the Mariners couldn't seem to find the mark in the 4th quarter and subsequently finished the season with an overall 5-15 record. The team recorded victories over St. John, Chardon, Perry twice, and Madison. Harbor lost both games to Ashtabula, Conneaut, Edgewood, and Fairport, and once to Jefferson. The Mariners scored a total of 830 points to the opponents' 889. They finished 4th in the WRL with a 4-6 record and tied for 3rd in the City Series with a 1-5 record. With three juniors on the starting team this year, the prospects look good for a successful season next year.

Finishing the year with a 6-11 record, the Reserve Mariner basketball team gained much experience for next year. Harbor scored 544 points in all their games to the opponents' 614. Coach Abel substituted freely in trying to give all the boys a chance to play.

The Freshman basketball team of 1964-65 concluded the season with a 3-6 mark. The Mariners defeated Kingsville once, Jefferson twice. They lost to Ash-tabula twice, Madison, Edgewood, and St. John. Again all boys were given an opportunity to play.

INTRAMURALS

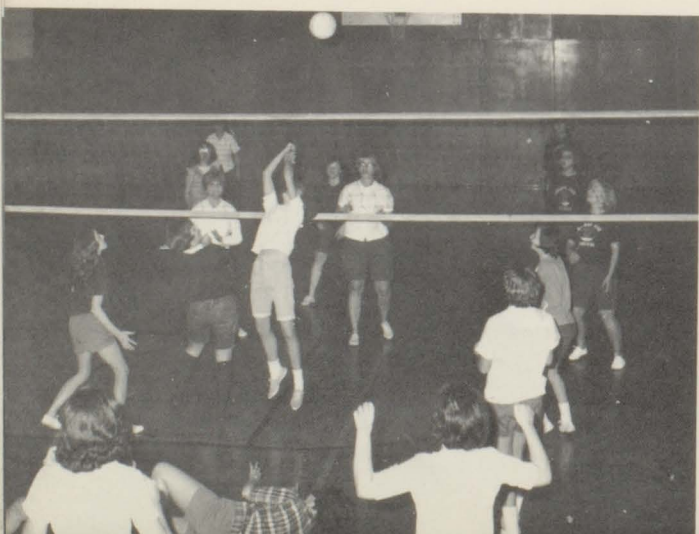

Boys' intramurals, directed by Mr. Dan Freeman, were held every Monday and Wednesday during the seventh period. This year the boys learned the fundamentals of basketball and participated in a basketball and volleyball tournament.

Approximately 170 girls from all four classes participated in a planned program of volleyball, basketball, and ping pong this year. The girls played every Tuesday and Thursday during the seventh period under the supervision of Mrs. Gloria Oppenheimer.

YOU CAN COUNT ON US...FOR LOW PRICES

Sears searches the markets for low costs on good quality merchandise. Sears cuts unnecessary distribution and storekeeping expense to keep prices down! These savings are passed on to you. Sears shoppers make comparisons every day to help keep prices lower for equal quality. These professional shoppers are constantly checking prices, features, and quality—they shop from your point of view—to be sure that you get more for your money at Sears.

YOU CAN COUNT ON US...FOR GOOD QUALITY

Sears goods measure up to exacting specifications. Sears controls the quality from the raw material to the final product on thousands of items; thousands more are thoroughly tested in Sears laboratory, the largest merchandise-testing laboratory in the world; many articles are sent into the field for actual use-tests; everything is factory-inspected and store-examined! Sears knows the products have quality before they're offered to you.

YOU CAN COUNT ON US...FOR WIDE ASSORTMENTS

You'll find Sears the big store in town. Why? Because you can pick from more than 140,000 different things; you can buy over the counters or from catalogs. "Charge" your purchases or pay cash; do as you please. Remember, you need no down payment on anything you buy at Sears on credit. And, there are several credit plans to fit your needs.

YOU CAN COUNT ON US...FOR RELIABLE SERVICE

Sears maintains a nation-wide force of trained experts who work on Sears appliances when you want service. They're not jack-of-all-brands mechanics, but exclusive Sears specialists. Sears also has replacement parts available for the reasonable life expectancy of anything you buy at Sears.

YOU CAN COUNT ON US...FOR SATISFACTION

Sears policy, "Satisfaction Guaranteed or Your Money Back," is not just a slogan, but a day-by-day promise to you. Sears greatest asset is your continued satisfaction, going far beyond the ringing of the register.

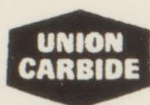

YOU CAN COUNT ON US...FOR FRIENDLINESS

You'll get friendly greetings and helpful assistance when you shop at Sears, because the folks who serve you are part-owners in the Company. Sears people are your friends and neighbors—you'll never be a stranger here.

Shop at Sears and Save...

—you can count on us

Best wishes to you in the class of 1965.
America swaits your answers to the problems that face us today, your responses to the challenges of the future. We, at Union Carbide, your neighbors, friends and parents are confident you will justify our pride in you.
